Help Us Celebrate Winterfest

The ABA invites you to celebrate the holiday season by helping to decorate Youngfield Street with festive holiday flags and decorations that will remain up until after New Year's Day!

You can participate by sponsoring a Winterfest Pole for just $25. For each pole sponsored, you will be entered into a random drawing for $100 in ABA script at the Board of Directors Jan. 5 meeting.

To help, please enclose a check for $25 for each pole sponsored, along with your name, business name, address and phone number. Mail it to ABA, P.O. Box 5177, Wheat Ridge, CO 80034.

Last call for Dec. 7 Holiday Lunch Party

The ABA's annual Holiday Party will kick off at 11:30 a.m., Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the Marriott Denver West. As always, we will hold a White Elephant Gift Exchange, so bring a wrapped gift to exchange. Regifting of last year's gifts is allowed and encouraged.

Cost to attend is only $25 and includes a salad, your choice either chicken piccata or roasted pork loin entree, and a festive dessert. If you haven't yet made your reservation, please call 303-233-4764 now and let us know which lunch entree you prefer.

Member Spotlight:

Brian DeLaet EduCyber, Inc.

720-275-4646

www.educyber.com

Brian DeLaet is president of EduCyber, Inc. Along with his wife Maki, they founded the business in 1998.

EduCyber is a technology partner for businesses large and small. Handling network design and maintenance, web site design and hosting, and customized search engine programs, EduCyber helps businesses get the most from their technology investment.

In addition to running the business, Brian is very involved in the community. He has served on a variety of boards at his church, Wheat Ridge Evangelical Lutheran Church, and is the past president of the ABA, a member of Enterprise Wheat Ridge and of the Golden Chamber of Commerce. Currently, he is serving on the committee that is helping to start Wheat Ridge's revitalization, a group called Wheat Ridge 2020.
