5-Minute Spotlight Speaker

Lori Bush-Engel, Modern Woodmen Of America

Modern Woodmen Of America is a 127 year old, not-for-profit fraternal financial services provider. Through Modern Woodmen Of America's wide variety of financial products & life insurance products, I offer advice to business owners, individuals, & families on everything from business & family protection to employee benefits & retirement plans.

It is very important to me, as a financial representative in Colorado, to be able to assist my members & prospective members with their financial lives. That's why I represent Modern Woodmen Of America, an organization that offers a wide array of qualified life insurance & annuity products to meet members' changing needs.

Speaker

Gregg Moss, Channel 9 News

Prior to joining 9NEWS, Moss worked for The Denver Business Journal and went on to publish a weekly business publication in Fort Worth, Texas.

Moss' background is varied with experience as an entrepreneur, senior level manager and educator. Moss moved to Colorado in 1983 from New Orleans, Louisiana where he attended Loyola University; he also has an honorary doctorate degree from the Colorado Institute of Art. Moss has received numerous awards for his business and journalistic work and community involvement. He currently serves on the Junior Achievement Board of Directors and is past board member of more than 12 large not-for-profits in Denver. Moss gives a great deal of time to local charities and is a popular program speaker when his schedule permits. He and his wife, Britta, have two children.

Gregg Moss's Specialties: Journalism, broadcast journalism, internet reporting, newspaper reporting, business planning, entrepreneur, finance, mergers & acquisitions, marketing, public relations
